

Hello everyone!

The calendar tells us that not only are our final exams of "Chinese Beginner I" approaching (this Thursday and Friday), the Christmas season is rapidly approaching as well. Without snow (or even frost!) here and "Rudolph the Red-nosed reindeer" playing over and over again in all the shops, it hasn't started to feel too much like Christmas is coming yet.

BUT ... a lady from our church told us last week that she wants to give us a Christmas tree. Wow - what a blessing! A six foot blessing, we hear! Another reminder to us of how God cares about the little things of our lives.

Well, here is our latest update filled with requests for prayer from you, our partners in this ministry here in Taiwan. Your prayers mean so much to us!

God bless you all. Have a beautiful, RELAXING (it IS possible), and white Christmas!

Love,

Chris, Terri, Kent and Anna Payk
